

David Simmons was a teenage boy who utilized his freedoms of assembly and speech to help lead the Newsboys' Strike of 1899. The strike helped achieve better wages and working conditions for newsies. The strike is depicted in the musical, Newsies.