

Elizabeth Gurley Flynn was a labor leader, activist, and feminist who played a leading role in the Industrial Workers of the World starting at the age of seventeen. Flynn, using her freedom of assembly, was a founding member of the American Civil Liberties Union and a visible proponent of women's rights, birth control, and women's suffrage. She even participated in so-called "free speech" fights.