

Educational Specialists Wanted

The First Amendment Museum is looking for education specialists to deliver our online programming to middle school students, now remotely or on site at the museum. This content can be delivered remotely on site at the museum at 184 State Street in Augusta, Maine or remotely from your home computer. 45 minute programs are offered on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday mornings between 9AM and 12PM. Choose one morning or all three. Content enhancements welcome though not required.

Stipend available.
